Agenda

8:30 am Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:00 am Welcome & Opening Remarks

*Rick Bigness, Manager, Canada
Customs, DaimlerChrysler Canada*

9:10 am Life in the FAST Lane and How to Get There: Update on U.S. Cross Border Programs: C-TPAT and ACE

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Customs and Border Protection (CBP) "has reinvented our shared border and revolutionized the way government and business think about the border and the supply chain. Trade must not only move goods quickly and efficiently, but also securely." Find out what the new rules are, how the implementation will affect your business, and what CBP requires from your company prior to arriving at the U.S. border.

*Eric L. Couture, Assistant Attaché-
Trade Operations,
U.S. Customs and Border Protection*

*Stephane Lupien, Small Business
Solutions Manager,
Export Development Canada*

Gain the knowledge of the process required to obtain C-TPAT certification as well as the changes in the program for existing members.

To become C-TPAT compliant, companies must meet certain physical, personnel, and procedural security requirements. The cost of these upgrades may be difficult to absorb. EDC has developed a loan program to help Canadian companies fund the costs to meet the required standards and to help the exporter qualify to become C-TPAT compliant.

ACE is here! (Automated Commercial Environment): Find out about the current rollout of the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI); Getting started, how to prepare, and e-manifest: How does it work?

Other areas covered in this workshop include:

- Free & Secure Trade (FAST) program, The FAST Driver-ID Card
- What is Pre-Arrival Processing System (PAPS)?
- The new seal requirement for shipments to the U.S.
- How does the Container Security Initiative (CSI) affect your operations?
- Other updates and information on programs such as the Western Hemisphere Initiative, the Nexus programs, wood material packaging requirements, Bioterrorism, the World Customs Organization (WCO) and the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) between the U.S., Canada and Mexico.
