

2019 Ask CFIA at the FORUM !

Ask Your Questions Directly to CFIA Experts

More than ever before, the 2019 I.E.Canada Food Forum will give you an opportunity to sit down and pose your questions directly to a CFIA expert. This year, CFIA will host 5 kiosks over both days of the Forum May 28th and 29th that will allow you to address questions on the following topics:

- Compliance with the Safe Food for Canadians Regulations
- Importer Preventive Control Plans (PCP) Requirements
- My CFIA
- Single Window/ CFIA Automated Import Reference System (AIRS)
- National Import Service Centre (NISC)

Don't miss this opportunity to get help if you are struggling to understanding What your compliance requirements are under the Safe Food for Canadians Regulations (SFCR) or How to meet these requirements or Where to get help.

Don't know what CFIA expects from your Preventive Control Plan or don't know how your Preventive Control Plan should change whether you import food from the U.S. or other countries around the world or from a company that has a third-party certified food safety scheme? The Forum is the place to ask the experts.

Need information on how to obtain a CFIA license, how to enrol in MyCFIA, how to obtain import permits, export permits, register establishments? At the Forum, CFIA experts will show you how to do all of this!

Confused or have questions about clearing CFIA regulated goods under Single Window or the CFIA transition plan to the IID? Frustrated or challenged by AIRS or questions about clearance of imported CFIA regulated goods through the National Import Service Center? Meet the CFIA team leaders responsible and get help directly from them, at the Forum.

The Forum is an Outstanding Opportunity for you to meet and gain valuable contacts with the CFIA experts.

The Canadian Food Inspection Agency will have more than 10 experts from the National Inspection Division; the National Import Service Center; the Center of Administration who issued the SCFR licenses; the Compliance and Promotion Unit; and Policy and Programs available and eager to help you with your questions.

Where else can you get all of this help in one place? ONLY AT: Ask CFIA at the Forum !
